The National Wild Turkey Federation, the South Carolina Department of Natural Resources and The Conservation Fund are pleased to partner together to acquire and preserve historic Belfast Plantation in Laurens and Newberry Counties for the enjoyment of the citizens of South Carolina. Located along Highway 56, this 4,664-acre plantation is easily accessible from the mountains or the coast. Preservation of this Piedmont treasure will provide the citizens of South Carolina a wealth of outdoor recreation opportunities as part of SCDNR's Wildlife Management Area and Heritage Trust Programs.

Tickets must be purchased in advance, so reserve yours today! If you are unable to attend, but would like to support this fundraising campaign, make your check payable to the National Wild Turkey Federation: Belfast Project and return in the enclosed envelope or visit www.nwtf.org/moreplacestohunt/belfast. All contributions are tax-deductible.

Thank you for your support!
